

PARENT CONSENT

I authorize my child to participate in the Puente Project. I give permission to the Puente Project to ask my child to complete questionnaires and to participate in interviews regarding his or her experiences in the Puente Project at his or her school. I understand that the information provided by my child will not affect in any way his or her academic schoolwork or grades.

I also give permission to the University of California's Puente Project to collect information about my child's academic record at his or her school, as well as at previous schools that my child may have attended, or schools that my child may attend in the future.

I understand that in no case will my child be identified individually by name and that all information will be strictly anonymous and confidential, except for purposes of college and university recruitment or to acknowledge the special accomplishments of my child.

Puente has my permission to release my child's name and address to colleges and universities for the purpose of informing him or her about admissions, special projects, financial aid or other non-commercial purposes. Puente has my permission to release my child's name and address to non-commercial organizations or persons who want to inform him or her about scholarships, grants, or awards.
